Dear Art Instructor,

The Kerr Arts and Cultural Center is happy to announce the dates of the 2023 Hill Country Youth Art Show! We hope you will consider participating this year.

Purpose

The primary purpose of the Hill Country Youth Art Show is to exhibit and highlight art created by area students ages K-12 in a gallery setting. With a secondary goal to foster and promote community interest in arts programs in schools as a means of communication and problem solving through the creative process.

Who

Any K-12 student currently enrolled in Kerrville and or surrounding school districts, as well as homeschooled students.

When

The 2023 Hill Country Youth Art show will be held in the Avery Gallery at Kerr Arts and Cultural Center, from February 9 - March 4, 2023. Delivery date for submitted art is Saturday, February 4, 10 am- 4 pm. Monday, February 6 at 4:00pm is the hard deadline for delivery. Reception and awards ceremony for the show is Saturday, February 25, 2:00-4:00 pm. Pick-up for the show is Saturday, March 11 between 10 am and 4 pm.

Criteria

Due to limited space each art teacher will be limited to three entries per class into the Youth Art Show, if there are four art classes per grade there can be up to 18 works entered for any given grade per school.

Art work submitted to the Youth Art Show should be mounted on a mat board, foam core or other firm backing to ease and facilitate hanging of work on gallery walls.

Awards

Students in K -6th grades will be recognized with either award or participation ribbons and are eligible for a discount on tuition to Camp Create, KACC's summer art program for youth. Students in grades 7th-12th will be awarded ribbons.

If you have any questions, please email me at kaccdir@kackerrville.com or give me a call at 830.895.2911

We will see you in February!
